Honoring

Christopher J. Raguso

Lt. FDNY,
FF Commack FD
Master Sgt. NY ANG

Wind Watch Golf
& Country Club
Hauppauge, NY

Christopher J. Raguso

The Knights of Columbus was founded on the principles of Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism. This year we honor a man who dedicated his life not only to these four principles but always went above and beyond in every aspect of his life. Chris was a husband to his wife Carmela and a father to his daughters Eva & Mila. He was a Master Sgt. in the NY Air National Guard, a Lt. in the FDNY and a volunteer FF in Commack Fire Department

Chris accomplished all of the above by age 39. He was on his sixth and final deployment as a Master Sergeant with Long Island's 106th Rescue Wing when the HH-60 Pave Hawk helicopter he was riding in struck a power line and went down along the Syrian border.

These are the words spoken of him by the person who knew him the best: “natural-born rescuer, saver and helper” - “He was the best version of himself when he was helping others.” - “He died a hero,” Carmela said. “Chris died for something that he really believed in, and he loved every second of it.”

“He was meant for something so much more than just to be my husband,” she said. “He wasn't just here for me, he was here for everyone. And he made this world a better place.”

A Scholarship Fund to Benefit the Children of FDNY Lieutenant Christopher J. Raguso has been established and portions of the money raised from this outing will be donated to that fund.
