Edward C. McElhone Jr.

Edward C. McElhone Jr. has worked in the family business, Clayton Funeral Home Inc. since he was a teenager. After graduating from Molloy College, he attended American Academy of McAllister Institute of Funeral Service and became a Licensed Funeral Director. As Ed Jr. started to serve the bereaved of Kings Park, he also started to serve the community of Kings Park. His strong sense of community drove his desire to serve the people of our town and worked to improve it.

As the years passed, Ed Jr.'s involvement and dedication to the organizations in our community has grown. Soon after Ed Jr. became a member of the Kings Park Chamber of Commerce, he joined numerous committees. He has served on these committees for years and is currently serving as Secretary of the Chamber. Ed Jr. is a member of The Ancient Order of Hibernians, The Order Sons of Italy, and the Knights of Columbus. Ed Jr. always finds time for all these organizations that are so important to him.

Over the years Ed Jr. has donated his time to his parish, St. Joseph's Kings Park. Here he spent many years as an usher as well as Co-Chairman of the annual family picnic. He recently began to help with the Veteran's Day Parade as well as the Memorial Day Parade.

Ed Jr. received an award given to him by the Kings Park Heritage Museum for being the "Go to Guy". He was also awarded the Honor of being one of the Irish "Top 40 under 40" in 2013. In March of 2015 the Kings Park Chamber of Commerce honored him as one of their Persons of the Year.

It is evident how Ed Jr. cares about his community, but above all he cares about his fiancé Oksana and his family. He is a generous and compassionate man who has always taken an interest in his community and the people in it.
